 The Bedlam rivalry is the most intense in college football. It's no big surprise, is it not? The state's two biggest sports teams are always on the field for the biggest game of the year. PUNT RETURNS BIG IN RECENT BEDLAMS

STILLWATER — Nothing says "Big Game" like a punt return. In the last two Bedlam games, the Sooners and Cowboys have both had big punt returns. In the last game, the Sooners had a 100-yard punt return by Josh Stowers. In the game before, the Cowboys had a 100-yard punt return by Josh Stowers. Bedlam divides the house that is Oklahoma into two snarling, frothing camps, decked in orange & crimson and chomping at the bit for game day. It's the kind of madness a state can only handle once a year.. And it all comes to a head that tense Saturday when OU and OSU face off.

Needless to say, it's a time for extra sports coverage. And needless to say, The Oklahoman is ready.
