

College Bound 2017

Choosing a college feels like one of the most important decisions you'll ever make. That's because it is.

As they consider this decision, parents and prospective students are hungry for a trustworthy source to inform their decision. Which is why The Oklahoman – the state's most trusted news source – publishes College Bound each fall. College Bound is a comprehensive guide to the selection and application process: choosing the right school, tips on applying, the ins and outs of financial aid, and how to have the best possible first year on campus.
