

2017 The Oklahoman Holiday Worship Guide

Content:

As their needs and circumstances change, people and families throughout the metro area can find themselves in search of a new church home.

Holiday services are a prime time for potential new church members to visit other congregations.

Published in The Oklahoman in advance of the holiday season, the Holiday Worship Guide is a chance to reach potential new members with your worship mission and show them the qualities that make your church family so inviting.
